Greenbrier Presbytery.

[Reported for the Dispatch.] Report of Committee on Minutes of the General Assembly was made, and after some discussion was adopted. There were four resolutions embodied in this report : 1. The appointment of a committee on the observance of the Sabbath-Rev. J. C.

Barr. 2. The apportionment of amounts to be raised for the different causes of the Church. First, by the Committees on Systematic Benovelence and Finance to the churches; and second, requiring the sessions at their quarterly conf rences in January to devise the best means to raise these sums in their congregations.

3. Directing the Committee on Education to ascertain what money has been appropriated to candidates for the ministry and who have not entered the work, and to ral Assembly to remain during the whole session. The report of the committee in the case of Rev. A. C. Stuart, recommending the withdrawal of complaints, was adopted by a vote of 15 to 13. Reading the narratives occupied the time of the Presbytery during the afternoon ses-to have the overture laid on the table at last meeting asking the General Assembly to define the Scripture doctrine of susury. Taken up and forward d to the Synod. A report was made by Dr. Houston, chairman of committee to inquire if there are any colored men in our bounds who should be sided in the work of preparation for the ministry. The committee reported none, and was continued. Licentiate Hodge, at his own request,
